

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

March 8, 2004            LR 209

SPEAKER BROMM:    One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS:    ...said something the other day that was right. He said that my attitude toward this constitution is, he said, schizophrenic. I think that's what he meant; love/hate some might say. I don't like the condition the constitution is in, that's true. But at the same time, I do view the constitution in terms of what it is supposed to be and the kind of dignity it ought to be accorded, even though those who've handled it have mishandled it in the past. There was a statue called "David" that was sculpted by a guy whose last name sounds like two names, and it was covered with grime and people had tried to clean in the past with all kind of abrasives. Then, when a decision was made to try to restore it, people who are very meticulous, full of care, who understood restoration, were called to do the job. I'm trying, to the extent that I can,...

SPEAKER BROMM:    Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS:    ...to keep the constitution from getting any worse. I cannot restore it by taking things out of it. Did you say time, Mr. Speaker?

SPEAKER BROMM:    Time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS:    Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM:    Thank you. Senator Tyson.

SENATOR TYSON:        My time to Senator Chambers, please, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BROMM:    Senator Chambers, you have just under five minutes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS:    Thank you, Senator Tyson. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will assure you all that if this thing did not involve the constitution, I would not be fighting it as strenuously as I am. And if certain senators had not made the comments they made, I would not be fighting it as strenuously as
