FLOOR DEBATE

March 16, 2004      LB 1084

SENATOR ERDMAN: Correct, in subsection (1),...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right.

SENATOR ERDMAN: ...actual knowledge is required.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, a person, in subsection (2), shall be deemed to have made or caused to be made one of these claims...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...if that person had the authority or responsibility to make the claim, or supervised the person who made the claim, or would authorize the making of the claim, and so forth. Does it say what knowledge this person would have to have?

SENATOR ERDMAN: I believe that it doesn't specifically outline, but I would go back to sub...to Section 3, as far as the definition of the ability to prove their actions. That's how I would look at that. Is that how you would...?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But I'm looking at the fact that in subsection (1) of Section 4 they require actual knowledge of falsity of the claim.

SENATOR ERDMAN: Correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would that carry over to the person who made or caused the claim to...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...be made?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: And this will be your third time now, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then I won't do it the question-answer method, because I'll run out of time. But again, to show that
