and Human Services into a partnership, and it was a great idea. But there were lots of stumbling blocks...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SPEAKER BROMM: ...along the way, and I don't want to see that happen with this transition. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Bromm. Senator Mines, on FA1573.

SENATOR MINES: Question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do see five hands. The question before the body is, shall debate cease on FA1573? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We're voting on ceasing debate, FA1573. Have you all voted who care to? We're voting on ceasing debate. Have you all voted who care to? Have you all voted? Record please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 3 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Debate does cease. Senator Jensen, to close on FA1573, the first division.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President. And thank you for all those that spoke. And Section...this particular division is Sections 1 through 9. It concerns itself with definitions, with purposes, with the authority of the behavior health authorities, and the services they provide. It also provides the regional behavior health regions, how those are described. It's more technical and regards definition and services that are provided through the regions themselves. I think it's self-explanatory. I would just ask for the adoption of FA1573.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Jensen. You've heard the closing on the first component of the divided committee amendment. The question before the body is, shall that amendment be adopted? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. The question before the body is FA1573, the first division of the
