FLOOR DEBATE

March 18, 2004 LB 1089

we're going to, have to raise taxes, not property tax, not sales tax, but income tax, has been my favorite. And it would bring in if we go...if we restore where we were in 1997, it would bring in about $70 million a year. And for me, I will have to pay more income tax, maybe not more than the property tax, but with the sales tax, I would have to pay more and I think that's a fair tax. If I make money, I should pay for it. But I think Senator Landis and Senator Chambers come up with a good idea, and so I would at this moment in time, 11:20 on March 18, I would support that amendment. Thank you.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Hartnett. Senator Bourne, you're recognized.

SENATOR BOURNE: Thank you, Madam President and members. I guess we'll discuss that motion when it comes, when and if it comes. Senator Wehrbein, would you answer a few questions again.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR BOURNE: And again, you know, part of this discussion on General File anyway is so that, quite honestly, the other 40 members can catch up with the Appropriations Committee.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I totally agree.

SENATOR BOURNE: Thank you. Thank you. I mean, I was on the Appropriations Committee for a year or a year and a half before Roger Wehrbein kicked me off. (Laughter) And, you know, the hours that they spend, and you just cannot...that was a joke. He did not kick me off. But you cannot get up to speed in a few hours. I mean, you know, and again, and I know Senator Wehrbein and his staff and I think the other people on the committee, they understand that we need to review this, we need to look at line by line. There might be differences of opinion, and those are good and healthy and that's what we need to do as it relates to discussing the budget. This is the most important thing I think we'll do this year. It's very relevant. Senator
