FLOOR DEBATE

March 18, 2004 LB 1089

have been paid. All of that is left alone. This money goes for blue ribbons, red ribbons and whatever other kind there are. I don't know what other kind of trinkets...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and whatnot they give for these various activities, but that's what this money deals with. And I think it ought to be taken out of the bill at this point. Then later on, after other things that are far more important have been dealt with, Senator Wehrbein or somebody else will move to put the money back in. If they get the money back in, I'll leave it alone. I will have lost. I take my lumps, pick myself up, dust myself off, but I won't start all over again on the State Fair. Thank you, Madam President.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Tyson, you're recognized to speak. Senator Tyson.

SENATOR TYSON: Thank you, Madam President. It was just yesterday that I mentioned to Senator Wehrbein that having looked over the budget, that I was willing to vote it up, on an up and down motion. Then I didn't know at the time, innocent and naive as I am, that Senator Bourne would come...I hope you're happy now, Senator Bourne, and I'm also very disappointed in him, he doesn't even know what day this is. Of course, neither does Senator Chambers. They just both proved that. One thinks it's I don't know when and the other one thinks it's day 18...18 days left to go. But let's get back to AM3216 and what it purports to do. I spoke on this floor several times against funding the State Fair. Even Lancaster County doesn't want the State Fair where the State Fair is. The Lancaster County Agricultural Society, which has a levy, saw fit to move theirs out to 84th Street, and I don't blame them. This is not a State Fair, this is a city of Lincoln fair. They are the only ones that benefit from it and that includes the participants. I think that denying them $306,218 doesn't deserve...doesn't disturb the general tenor of affairs. That is something that the mercantile interests of Lincoln should be able to raise in an afternoon. They are the beneficiaries of it. Why not let them do it? I go to several county fairs and I enjoy myself at
