FLOOR DEBATE

March 18, 2004 LB 1089

them. They're something like a fair used to be and is supposed to be. I haven't been to this one for several years, three, I think, or four, because it's poorly placed. The buildings have been taken very poor care of. The entertainment is not to my liking. I can think of nothing that would draw me and a lot of other people to the fair, and I have this for proof: that a lot of people don't go. There's nothing there. What does it taste like? It tastes like sticking your tongue out. I am all for AM3216, and then let's get on to some other business. This is the first bill of a number of budget bills. I'm ready to vote on the committee amendments, and I'll vote for them. I think that we should not mess around with this bracket motion, I just think we ought to vote the amendment up and get about our business. There are...how many days are there left? Senator Bourne, would you respond to a question?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Bourne, will you yield to a question?

SENATOR BOURNE: Yes.

SENATOR TYSON: How many days are there left in this regular session, Senator Bourne?

SENATOR BOURNE: Senator Tyson, you caught me. There's 16 days left.

SENATOR TYSON: Thank you. Well, at least Senator Bourne knows more than he did just a few moments ago. I've served a small purpose and I'm happy about that.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: One minute.

SENATOR TYSON: Thank you, Madam President.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Tyson. Senator Chambers, your light is next and it is the last night. Did you wish to speak or close?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, I hope it is obvious that I don't intend this motion to be taken to a vote, but I could not allow Senator Bourne's words to go unanswered. And if we had
