FLOOR DEBATE

March 19, 2004      LB 1090, 1091

SENATOR JANSSEN: And the people did vote for this. They did vote for it with those stipulations in mind. And those are gambling dollars, folks, and see what's happening with them. We're using them for tough times. I want you to remember that also. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: Thank you, Senator Janssen. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I'd like to ask Senator Wehrbein a question.

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Wehrbein, if this bill is not passed in the form that it exists right now, with these transfers in the amounts that are listed, what will be the consequences?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, it'll be...it will be complicated to figure it out, figure out a solution to it, but there will be LB 1090, LB 1091, I'm looking it to see...there will be not...some initiatives unfunded, least from a cash fund. We may...the general implication would be we have to, if we want to keep what we're doing, we'll have to go to General Fund, which will widen the gap. That would be one issue. The other issues would be that we'd have less money being transferred, say, from the lottery fund in the General Fund, so we'd have less money going into the General Fund. That would be number two. So less General Fund, or more obligations on the General Fund, that would be the general consequences.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, if these initiatives that we're talking about were not to be funded, we wouldn't have to come up with this amount of money that we're discussing in LB 1091.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: If you do not believe in the initiatives, that's true.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And I'm not saying I don't. I just want to
