amount of time, but I would say a month or so after the Legislature makes its decision, so it might be April or May or even June.

SENATOR KREMER: Okay. So it would be kind of a burden for the schools to...

SENATOR RAIKES: Right.

SENATOR KREMER: ...be able to plan and know what to do. One other question that I had, we was talking about many schools have overridden their levy already. And Senator Kruse had mentioned a little bit about that they could freehold out. I think there are some things that say that you can't, it at least has to be two years later and your numbers have to drop to a certain amount before you could freehold. Is that accurate, or...?

SENATOR RAIKES: That's true. I don't have the exact numbers on the top of my head, but if you have fewer than 60 high school students for two years in a row, then, and there is an override adopted, then people that are next to an adjoining school district can freehold.

SENATOR KREMER: It doesn't just automatically allow you to freehold out without meeting some qualifications in there.

SENATOR RAIKES: That's correct.

SENATOR KREMER: One other question. These schools then that have overridden their levy, if we would raise this to $1.10, say a school has overridden the levy to $1.20 and they felt like they had to do that in order to maintain their school and they felt like they were willing to pay that in order to keep their school and we would raise this to $1.10, well, actually we would give them less state aid. Then would they have to come back and try to override their levy again in order to be able to survive?

SENATOR RAIKES: Senator, that's a good question. And it depends on how the levy was or how the question was put on the ballot. If it was for levy authority above and beyond the
