FLOOR DEBATE

March 30, 2004 LB 1047

fact that we would be increasing from $10,000 to $50,000 with no look-back for that extra $40,000. Not...we don't want to provide a provision for them to protect, the day before bankruptcy, an extra $40,000. So they're looking for a look-back...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, so...

SENATOR REDFIELD: ...of three years for that.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...so the most, under the structure you're talking about, the most that could be exempted would be $50,000. But if you tried to protect that amount of money within the three-year period, it would not be protected. Is that what you're saying?

SENATOR REDFIELD: That's, I believe, the agreement that I'm hearing from...

SENATOR BEUTLER: If...

SENATOR REDFIELD: ...from the parties that were discussing it in committee.

SENATOR BEUTLER: So long as the look-back does not negate the cap, I guess right offhand, Senator, I can't see a problem with it.

SENATOR REDFIELD: All right. That would be the intent. Do you want me to just draft another amendment to add that...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR REDFIELD: ...back in this...thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Redfield. Senator Bromm, on the Beutler amendment to the Redfield amendment to LB 1047.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Mr. President. I guess I am inclined to wish that we could keep this bill relatively clean. And I think the Beutler amendment does provide a significant change in
