through the Legislature. I'm well aware that he may have enough "Repelican" cohorts in here to dictate to the Legislature, to legislate by cloture. It hasn't happened yet, but it very well may.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And we'll just have 90 days to see what we can do, you all trying to get the Governor elected, me doing what I can to stop it. So I am now in favor also of doing nothing. And since I'm the oldest member of the Legislature, I designate myself, I am the self-appointed chairperson of the "do-nothing" party of the Nebraska Legislature for this session. I am not even going to offer...well, I'll wait until I'm recognized, because my time will run out, and I want to have the opportunity to explain what else I'm not going to offer this session. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes. Thank you, Mr. President and members. I'm getting up to speed on what's happening here this morning. I've been in a meeting with a constituent all morning on the mental health reform plan. And it was very instructive, but I didn't have the opportunity to really scout out what was the plan for this morning. And I'm absolutely stunned that we're not going to do anything, that we are going to leave it where we left it last night. And I guess I'm thinking, as I read the paper this morning, and they're talking about the mental health reform plan and how much it's going to cost, I know way down deep in my bones that it's going to cost more than we think it's going to cost. And we're going to have additional dollars to find in the future. And I'm thinking, we've got other initiatives that we're implementing this year that we probably shouldn't be implementing if we can't close the hole and the gap in our budget a little bit. And I don't know what to do to protest where we're going, except to say that I'm not going to go willingly down this road, and I'm not going to be part of a "do-nothing" Legislature. I'm going to protest by voting against the entire bill if this is what we're going to do. I
