is different across the state and each family situation is different, but I think we need to arrive at a point that is not doubling up what is in many cases already a pretty large burden to bear in providing for the college tuition, room and board. Thank you, Mr. President.

CLERK: Senator Beutler, I now have your AM3548, Senator, as an amendment to the committee amendments.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator, I would withdraw that and put it at the bottom of the pile.

CLERK: Well, Senator Beutler, I have no further amendments to the committee amendments, so I just want to...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Back to discussion of the committee amendments. Senator Schimek. Now it's your turn, Senator Schimek. I'm sorry for the interruption.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Well, thank you, Mr. President and members. I was...I was trying to determine here whether I needed to talk or not at this point with everything going on, and I guess I don't.
