Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

April 6, 2004 LB 1083

talking about the term. And I'm aware that it exists in other places, because if we move up to line 18 they have the word...the term "public member." It's obvious this kind of legislation doesn't come through the Judiciary Committee. The question I'm asking you is if every place the term "public member" or "public members" would be found we would change it to "member of the public" or "members of the public." Go ahead, you can consult with your counsel, because this is a deep issue, pregnant with meaning.

SENATOR BYARS: Quite honestly, it doesn't seem very offensive to me, but I better check with legal counsel to make sure there's not something that I'm missing, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now you said it doesn't seem very offensive. Does it seem somewhat offensive to you, or not offensive at all?

SENATOR BYARS: It's not offensive at all to me.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, then I'll let you consult with counsel and I will say a word or two to Senator Jensen, if I may.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's exactly what I was going to say.

SENATOR CUDABACK: But your light...but your light is next, Senator Chambers, so you may continue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And, Mr. President, that's what I was going to say also. You must be a mind reader. But anyway, thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You're ahead of me.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator...he did it again. (Laugh) Senator Jensen, I didn't expect this discussion about "public members" to take the turn it has. Do you understand what I'm saying? Would it be a problem to you if we said members of the public?

SENATOR JENSEN: No, it would not be a problem. I think this occurs throughout, however, this bill, and we're going to have
