FLOOR DEBATE

April 6, 2004 LB 613

want to overrule the Chair, despite the fact that the underlying bill would open up Chapter 28, the criminal code, in a very, very broad manner, my amendment would have further added to Chapter 28, criminal code, in a way that was fully consistent and germane to the breadth of the bill that was underlying it. And now Senator Mossey wants to create a new crime. It will fall under Chapter 28 and he wants to do it under a court procedures bill, Chapter 29. That's interesting. You can't have it both ways, Senator Mossey. Your argument doesn't pass the laugh test. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Foley. Further discussion on the motion to overrule the Chair? Senator Mossey, there are no lights on. You're recognized to close on your motion to overrule the Chair.

SENATOR MOSSEY: Thank you. I'm sorry Senator Foley is upset about the other vote and decides to bring that up on my bill, but this is a good bill and is good...and it is a good crime that is being created here. The offense of domestic assault is a true and valuable crime that needs to be addressed here in Nebraska. It is germane to the issue. It has to do with domestic violence. It has to do with the confidentiality. It has to do with everything that has...I couldn't have actually put it any better than what Senator Brashear said. If I had to pick a closing, I would pick what Senator Brashear said. And sorry, Senator Foley. I'm going to try for both ways today. And I'll close. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You've heard the closing on the motion to overrule the Chair. This Chair has ruled the germaneness issue that the Mossey amendment, AM3325, is not germane to LB 613. Senator Mossey.

SENATOR MOSSEY: Can I ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote, please?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Been a request for a call of the house. All in favor of the house going under call vote aye, those opposed nay. Record please, Mr. Clerk.
