be given a state funeral with honors. And being the loyal soldier that he was, Rommel went along with it. I'd like to ask Senator Friend a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK:      Senator Friend, would you yield to a question?

SENATOR CHAMBERS:      Senator Friend, have you heard of a United States general, he lived between about 1885 and 1945?

SENATOR FRIEND:      Yes. Well, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS:      Are you aware of a general whose name was Patton, P-a-t-t-o-n?

SENATOR FRIEND:      There was a general named Patton, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS:      And so we might be talking about the first...the same one. What was his first name?

SENATOR FRIEND:      Well,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS:      No, it was not "Will."

SENATOR FRIEND:      ...I believe the...his name was George. But he was a "Junior."

SENATOR CHAMBERS:      And what was his middle initial?

SENATOR FRIEND:      "S."

SENATOR CHAMBERS:      And what did the "S." stand for?

SENATOR FRIEND:      It stood for...

SENATOR CHAMBERS:      What's one of the most common names...

SENATOR FRIEND:      You caught me off guard.

SENATOR CHAMBERS:      What is the name that people sign when they go to a hotel with somebody who is not their spouse?
