FLOOR DEBATE

April 14, 2004 LR 209

appropriated by the Legislature for the costs of establishing and maintaining the lottery and for the following purposes, as directed by the Legislature:" that's existing law, "as directed by the Legislature:" New language: "The first five hundred thousand dollars after the payment of prizes and operating expenses shall be transferred to the Compulsive Gamblers Assistance Fund." Think you understand it? Secondly, "Forty-four and one-half percent of the money remaining after the payment of prizes and operating expenses and the initial transfer to the Compulsive Gamblers Assistance Fund shall be transferred to the Nebraska Environmental Trust Fund to be used as provided in the Nebraska Environmental Trust Act." Can you follow that? Because if you can, so can the Supreme Court. "Forty-four and one-half percent of the money remaining after the payment of prizes and operating expenses and the initial transfer to the Compulsive Gamblers Assistance Fund shall be used for education as the Legislature may direct."

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR LANDIS: "Ten percent of the money remaining after the payment of prizes and the operating expenses and the initial transfer to the Compulsive Gamblers Assistance Fund shall be transferred to the Nebraska State Fair Board if the most populous city within the county in which the fair is located provides matching funds equivalent to ten percent of the funds available for transfer. Such matching funds may be obtained from the city and any other private or public entity, except that no portion of such matching funds shall be provided by the state." Stump you? I don't think so. "If the Nebraska State Fair ceases operations, ten percent of the money remaining after the payment of prizes and operating expenses and the initial transfer to the Compulsive Gamblers Assistance Fund shall be transferred to the General Fund; and one percent of the money remaining after the payment of prizes, expenses, and the Compulsive Gamblers Assistance Fund shall be transferred to the Gamblers Assistance Fund." If you...

SPEAKER BROMM: Time. Thank you, Senator Landis. (Laugh) At ease, Senator Landis. Senator Cudaback.
