SENATOR CUDABACK: The motion was successful.

CLERK: Mr. President, the second confirmation report, from Health and Human Services, Senator Jensen, I have appointments to the Health Care Council, the Board of Emergency Medical Services, and the Child Abuse Prevention Fund Board.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen, as Chairman of the Health and Human Services, you're recognized to open on your report.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the Legislature. Good morning to all. The Health and Human Services Committee desires to report favorably upon the following five appointments to the Nebraska Health Care Council, then one appointment to the Child Abuse Prevention Fund Board, one appointment to the Board of Emergency Medical Services. And the committee suggests the appointments be confirmed by this Legislature. The first is John Klosterman, to the Nebraska Health Care Council. He's a farmer and rancher from David City,
