FLOOR DEBATE

April 15, 2004

enjoyment I've had, the fun days we've had, the evenings we've spent together, and God bless all of you. Thank you very much.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Floyd Vrtiska. (Applause) And thank you, Senator Wehrbein, for introducing Senator Vrtiska. Senator Ray Janssen, would you come forward, please?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Well, Floyd, that's a tough act to follow, let me tell you. Twelve years ago, when I first came down here, one of the first individuals I met that made me feel at home was Senator Hartnett, and throughout the years that friendship has grown and grown and hopefully will continue to grow, Senator Hartnett, you know. And I will miss and a lot of the other colleagues in this great Legislature will miss also some of the card games we've had, some of the...some of the other ventures that we have done outside of the Legislature, some of the golf courses we've visited. And one thing that will always stick in my mind, some of you remember Senator Dan Lynch. Well, Paul and I didn't think that was the greatest thing in the world, although we never did...we never did get picked up with Dan. It's remarkable that that never happened. But I've served with Paul on the Urban Affairs Committee, General Affairs Committee, and the Revenue Committee, and the Urban Affairs Committee, which Senator Hartnett has chaired for quite some time, and I'd like to mention a few of the accomplishments that have happened under the direction of Senator Hartnett in that committee. Paul has the longest continuous chairmanship of a legislative committee, that's 18 years, and will never happen again. In fact, the people passed a constitutional amendment to make sure that his record will remain unbroken. As Chairman of that committee, Senator Hartnett has authorized the Enterprise Zone Act, passed bills that authorized counties to install
