Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

January 19, 2005

SENATOR CUDABACK: (Gavel)

SPEAKER BRASHEAR: ...if I could, thank you, and it isn't...it isn't that I think you all ought to stop when I'm...but I'm trying to communicate things that affect your lives. I'm trying to let you know what's going on so you can know and rely and relax. I would like to share with you, of course you know today is our final day. Gee, you've shown great restraint in terms of the amount of legislation. We're running behind the...running behind the historical average, so we should have more time for the bills we do have. Right? Tomorrow, we will convene at 11:00, and obviously there are no bills to introduce, and there will be nothing substantive on the agenda except that we will be noting, and this is an old Chair trying to share the information, we will be noting that notices for reporting things out, notices of hearings, those kinds of things need to be received and I would encourage all the Chairs to be communicating with the Clerk's Office so that we don't stay in session longer than we need to. Because, like other sophisticated legislative bodies all over the world, you know, we could be in and out sometimes fairly quickly if there's no reason to hold the record open. Friday we're going to simply...I've decided to cut our losses. We are dependent upon a resignation, a confirmation of Governor Johanns and a resignation from Governor Johanns in order to be able to swear in the Lieutenant Governor as the Governor on Friday, but we're going to publish the agenda as if that were going to occur on Friday and then see where we end up; that I think that's easiest for everybody. Then we aren't keeping the print shop extra or anything else. Obviously, if we don't have the resignation then we will convene at 10:00 Friday morning. There will be nothing else of substance on the agenda. We can adjourn as quickly thereafter as possible, or we will be dealing with the Governor and swear...Lieutenant Governor and swearing him in; one or the other. The agenda will be written as if we're going to do that on Friday. Monday, trying once again to follow my philosophy that we want to be good to ourselves, take care of you, we will convene at 11:00, because there's no reason not to at Monday. Now, all good things must come to an end, and Tuesday some form of reality will return and we'll begin with Revisor bills and other bills which I hope are then reported out. So I'm still
