FLOOR DEBATE

March 30, 2005 LB 273

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...mandatory will say? Mr. President, you said I have one minute?

SENATOR CUDABACK: I did, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. I will have to hold that off until I get a chance to be recognized again because it will take me more than one minute. But there's a practical application I want to make. And I don't know why I keep thumping my rural friends upside their skull. They don't learn. They will not learn. None are so blind as those who will not see. Look at this little piddling piece of legislation you got here, and then look look at all the wonderful things you're going to get, because in the rural area, things come cheaper. And you were the ones who bring it so the urban people laugh at you, and they say, well, if they swallow that, they'll swallow anything; I think I'll put Omaha in it and take over the whole thing. Omaha has the population, Omaha has the political power, Omaha will get all the money. And then you wonder why, when you open your croker sack, there's nothing in it but air.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Cunningham, followed by Senators Redfield, Stuhr and Chambers. Senator Cunningham.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Thank you, Senator Cudaback and members. I didn't quit...get quite finished with my opening, so I'll finish on that now. But I...what I started to say, in the past I and many other rural senators have supported economic development bills, we've supported LB 775, because we realize how important they are for Omaha, Lincoln and the state of Nebraska as a whole. And I go home to my district and I'm chastised regularly for supporting that. Many, many people in my district, and I would venture to say a considerable percentage of them, are against incentives for business, but I really believe that they help the state of Nebraska. But I believe also that we need to stick together and we need to help rural Nebraska help
