FLOOR DEBATE

April 21, 2005      LB 70

SENATOR JENSEN: You know, I'm not in that district.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's not the question. There are people who are dead who vote. (Laughter) Are you going to vote for him, yes or no?

SENATOR JENSEN: (Laugh) I'm not dead yet. I would vote for Senator Smith.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Not would; are. Are you going to vote for him?

SENATOR JENSEN: No, I cannot.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Oh, you added a word; you cannot?

SENATOR JENSEN: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You said you cannot?

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR JENSEN: Cannot.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why can you not?

SENATOR JENSEN: Well, because that he's of another district.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Haven't you heard of people falsifying addresses and registering as though they live some place when they don't?

SENATOR JENSEN: I have. I have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you are able to vote for him if you choose. Isn't that right?

SENATOR JENSEN: Not legally.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You add words. "Can" means able. You are able to vote for him if you choose, aren't you?
