FLOOR DEBATE

January 9, 2006 LB 542

the first time, Legislative Journal pages 243-244.)

Mr. President, I do have an amendment to the committee amendments. Senator Chambers, may I continue to assume, Senator, the amendments that had been here prior to the start of discussion today you want to continue to pass over? You know, the amendments that were filed from last year, Senator?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

CLERK: Okay. And...or would you like to withdraw them, Senator, or just have them sitting here?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I would withdraw them.

CLERK: Okay. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend with FA325. (Legislative Journal pages 244-245.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to open on FA325 to the committee amendments to LB 542.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, wouldn't you know that this machine has developed a mind of its own? I put the little arrow on FA325, I hit the button, and something came up that said the error is 94 with description invalid use of null at location digit something, something, mouse down. Now, I was given an article where this man in New Mexico caught a mouse in his house. He was burning leaves and he threw the mouse in the fire, the cruel human being. The "Bibble," the "Holly Bibble" says, you sow the wind, you shall reap the whirlwind. That little mouse took the flame and ran under the porch of this house. The house caught fire and burned to the ground. For once, justice was served. Now, God, when I was taking courses at Creighton, was never portrayed in a physical form, but different societies throughout history have attempted to do that. Well, this is the only time that I have seen a god dispense justice so quickly and appropriately. So if
