FLOOR DEBATE

January 11, 2006 LB 454

instead, they just deal with the peace officer. The emergency service personnel has dropped out of the picture, because of sloppy, slapdash, careless drafting. All they want is something passed. They don't care what it does. They don't care what it does not do, but I do. This is atrocious, but the body doesn't care. So you're going to give the NRA a vote as a favor for cloture, from what I've been told. And Senator Erdman showed me an article in the Lincoln Journal Star where it was the local yokel who said that they've counted votes and they have enough for cloture, and it just mentioned that the guy from around Washington is also here from the NRA. But I say they're in it together, aiding and abetting. If one pulls the robbery and another drives the getaway car, they're equally guilty. This is an NRA bill and we know it.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And there's a lot in it that nobody on the floor knows because they haven't read it. Why do I say nobody, including me? Because my concept of reading means to understand what you perceive when you go over those words, and I do not understand everything in this bill. A lot of it makes no sense whatsoever. So my motion is to recommit this bill to the Judiciary Committee. Mr. President, I will ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. There's been a request for a call of the house. All in favor of the motion vote aye; those opposed vote nay. Record please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 22 ayes, 1 nay, Mr. President, to place the house under call.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The motion was successful. The house is under call. All unexcused senators please report to the Chamber. Unauthorized personnel on the floor please leave the floor. The house is under call. The house is under call. Unexcused senators please report to the Chamber. The house is under call. Senator Dwite Pedersen, check in, please. Thank you. Senator Stuhr, Senator Kruse, Senator Synowiecki, Senator Preister. Senator Schrock, the house is under call. Senator
