FLOOR DEBATE

January 11, 2006 LB 454

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator.

SENATOR KRUSE: ...in a way that you are trying to defend yourself. I hope that all of us can feel the pain and the power...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator Kruse.

SENATOR KRUSE: ...of these facts in our lives. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Kruse. Senator Chambers, on your motion to reconsider.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, when young people in my community are dying, you think I care about killing this session? You all don't pay attention to anything that I say, and I know it. That's why I don't sit around here, like you all do, and socialize with you. My people are not human beings to you. Here's another article that appeared last year, December 10: Machine guns get man 27 months in jail. A Lincoln man was sentenced Thursday to 27 months in prison after being convicted of possessing machine guns. Earl Clevenger, 53, pleaded guilty in September to possession of machine guns. Authorities served a search warrant in September 2003 at Clevenger's firearm business--that's why I know he's white--Shootn Haus, S-h-o-o-t-n H-a-u-s, where Clevenger had a license to sell firearms. These things let us know he's white. The search produced four fully automatic weapons, the U.S. Attorney's Office said. They will go after these white gun dealers when the guns will wind up in the hands of people who will use them against white people. That shows they can find the source of these guns. I was telling Senator Beutler last summer I was cutting grass and I saw all these young people running down the street, maybe about nine or ten of them, and they looked terrified, and I looked and no pit bull was chasing them, no vehicle. Then I see this guy somewhat further behind them. He was about 17 at the most, and at his side he had a pistol. And as he came abreast of where I was cutting grass, I say, hey, man, what are you doing? Why are you doing this in my community, in my neighborhood? He stopped. He looked surprised. He said, Chambers, is that you, man? I said,
