FLOOR DEBATE

January 12, 2006 LB 57

into that discussion.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, that's tough. You're on the floor and you're agreeing and it's your bill. Would you accept my amendment to say "Hetero sapiens" instead of "Homo sapiens"?

SENATOR FOLEY: I'm a pretty sure "no" vote on that amendment, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But you don't know what "Homo" means, other than in a negative sense when you vote against bills that would give rights to people who have that label as a part of their description, right?

SENATOR FOLEY: Well, you're drifting off into another topic, Senator, and it's a little bit...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, is it your view that this fetus would be a human being at some point?

SENATOR FOLEY: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you agree that homosexual people are human beings?

SENATOR FOLEY: Absolutely.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So how can you say I'm drifting off into something else? We have a term that applies to adults and those who are not adults--"Homo." We have a term here applied to that which you say is a human being at any stage of development, which I disagree with, but taking your position, why will you apply "Homo" there but you don't like it when it's applied to adults?

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's what I want to know, if you can give me an answer.

SENATOR FOLEY: Well, Senator, I know you have a great interest
