FLOOR DEBATE

January 20, 2006 LB 72

SENATOR STUHR: Right.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...in the concealed carry bill.

SENATOR STUHR: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And this bill, which doesn't apply to the public generally, but applies to security officers, essentially allows the same thing, does it not, in terms of concealed carry? If you get this gun permit under this separate security officer process, you can also carry a concealed weapon, and it goes beyond Senator Combs' bill in the sense that not only, as a security officer, can you carry a concealed weapon, but you can carry it in a school, in a financial institution, anywhere where that security officer is employed, during the time of employment. Right?

SENATOR STUHR: Yes. Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR STUHR: That is true.

SENATOR BEUTLER: So my first question, just to get a general sense of how you view the matter, which should be the higher standard--the standard that applies to the general citizenry in order to carry a concealed weapon, or the standards that apply to security officers?

SENATOR STUHR: We...Senator Beutler, we included Section 10 because, you know, we had not had the discussion on concealed carry, and it had not been included,...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Right.

SENATOR STUHR: ...and so we felt that there needed to be an exemption. If you think that that is not worded, you know, correctly, we'll be happy to work with you, you know, on Select File. But I think security officers will have really higher standards that they are meeting than the general public, as far
