FLOOR DEBATE

January 20, 2006 LB 72

as training and firearms permit.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, so...

SENATOR STUHR: It will even be a higher standard.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...you would intend that they could not come under 28-1202 and serve as a security officer, right; that there would be no justification under the strict terms of 28-1202 to be carrying around a concealed weapon as a security officer, right?

SENATOR STUHR: That they would not be penalized, that...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, would...let's say this bill passes,...

SENATOR STUHR: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...and somebody decides they don't want to go through your permit process, and some employer allows that, although they'd be unwise to do so.

SENATOR STUHR: That's right.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And somebody who works for them starts carrying a concealed weapon, and they shoot somebody. Now, is it your intent that they could not use 28-1202 as a defense, and argue that they're a security officer and that's a situation where they should be allowed, under 28-1202, to carry a weapon, and therefore the...

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...defenses of 28-1202 would apply? I mean, I assume, with respect to security officers, you want them following your act and nothing else. Is that correct?

SENATOR STUHR: I want...I'm sorry, I didn't understand. We want them to do what?

SENATOR BEUTLER: You want your process in LB 72 to be the only
