Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

January 20, 2006 LB 72

Senator Stuhr knows that I'm going to take plenty of time on her bill, as everybody else knows I will do on his or her bill. But this legislation, when you look at what it attempts to do, is necessary. But in its present form, I do not think it is acceptable. I'm not going to delay the adoption of Senator Stuhr's amendment, because postured as it is, no amendments can be offered to what she is presenting to us. And since I have no interest in killing the bill, I'm not going to take my time at the point where we're trying to get something before us that will replace the green copy of the bill. But I'd like to ask Senator Stuhr a question, so that for the sake of proceeding I know exactly what we're going to do.

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Senator Stuhr.

SENATOR STUHR: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Stuhr, this amendment displaces every other proposed amendment that is on the gadget, or has been there, and this is what we will be working with.

SENATOR STUHR: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Thank you. That's what I needed to find out. This, I realize, is my third time to speak. And that's not the only reason I'm conceding. But I have some very small amendments that I will offer, to demonstrate that I have read this bill. And on some of the other aspects of it, I will raise questions. I might even make suggestions, and I might even offer amendments. I'm not sure. But I do know I'm going to take a lot of time. And the process I may choose to follow is to offer amendments designed to strike sections from the bill, and that will enable me to engage in the discussion that I have in mind, even if nobody else wants to talk about it. I've got to do it that way, because I have only three opportunities to speak if I try to deal with the entire package that is presented to us. So as soon as this proposal that Senator Stuhr has before us is adopted--and I will vote to adopt it, so that we can get down to cases on it--I will have more detailed observations to make. And before sitting down this time, I want to reemphasize, in case Senator Stuhr may not have heard me,
