FLOOR DEBATE

January 20, 2006 LB 72

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Senator Combs, would you yield? Senator Combs, would you yield to Senator Chambers?

SENATOR COMBS: Hopefully I can. I haven't been following what you were saying.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's why I'm going to ask the question.

SENATOR COMBS: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Combs, under your bill, your NRA bill, when must a person qualify, in the first instance, to get a license to carry a concealed pistol?

SENATOR COMBS: When must they qualify?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR COMBS: Well, they have to have it before they can get a permit in the first instance.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is there anything in your bill that talks about them ever having to qualify again?

SENATOR COMBS: I believe it's every five years.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Did you listen to the exchange between me and Senator Cornett?

SENATOR COMBS: Yes, and I was explaining to her that the goal is just to survive an attack, for the concealed weapon carrier, and not to take the fight to the criminal, which requires a lot more training.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Combs,...

SENATOR COMBS: You just have to survive.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Combs, that is a hasty rationalization. Under your bill, a person can carry a concealed weapon 24 hours a day. Isn't that true?
