process. So I don't want to lose sight of the fact that this is a bill that we need to do. I was always kind of nervous about the Secretary of State's Office being in charge of this whole process, and expressed that a number of times to Senator Stuhr. But there is a rationale for it, and that rationale is that when we did the detective regulation bill several years back, we put that with the Secretary of State's Office. And it did seem to work pretty well, so I got over it. But I do think that the suggestion that it is the State Patrol who is in charge of the training and so forth is a very good suggestion and I think that we should do that, and I would be very willing to support that concept. So please don't get sidetracked from the main thrust of this bill. It is something that Senator Stuhr has worked with and, as you know, we do work with the industry on different pieces of legislation, no matter what that legislation is, because they are the ones who live it every day, and we need to talk to them. I don't think Senator Stuhr has been unduly influenced or neither has the committee, but I would encourage you, after the kinds of amendments that we might be discussing here yet this morning, I would encourage you to support the committee amendment, because essentially that is the amended amendment and it incorporates the Stuhr bill. So with that, thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Stuhr, if I may, let me ask you one more question for purposes of ascertaining your feelings on the matter.

SENATOR STUHR: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: The fee in this case for the licensing process is not identified, and it's simply indicated that it shall be...cover the costs. In almost all cases, probably not all, but in almost all cases, we either state the fee or state a range that the fee will be in, for the purposes of, I suppose, trying to contain administrators from padding their budgets a little bit with extra big fees and that sort of thing. Would you have any objection looking between General File and Select File and establishing either a set fee or a range, a fee range,
