FLOOR DEBATE

January 20, 2006 LB 72

would be a new provision in our statutes in regards to qualifications for security guards and, again, I think what we have to look at is right now we have...we have none. So I think that this is a gigantic first step, and it will not be a perfect piece of legislation and we'll continue to work on it, I'm sure. I won't, but future legislators will have the opportunity to improve it as we go along. So I do support the amendment that is before us. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Thank you, Senator Stuhr. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, since Senator Stuhr has said she would accept this amendment, I'm going to call her attention to something else in the bill.

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Senator Stuhr, would you yield?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, I can ask Senator Beutler this question. I'd like to ask...

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...Senator Beutler a question. Senator Beutler?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Beutler is coming to his mike, and I'm going to call his attention to the page that I will be looking at, page 4, line 2.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: There is a listing here of items which would go to minimum guidelines for educating and training licensees, and these minimum guidelines would include, on page 4, line 2, "Ethics, honesty, professionalism, and proper conduct." Those are general terms which, to me, would apply to any person who is involved in any profession. Would you agree?
