January 23, 2006    LB 72
