Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

January 24, 2006

anymore, which for me is uncommon courtesy, by simply staying out of the Chamber. Because I don't know when you might bring a loony-tune in here, I'll just come up and I'll sit under the balcony. I don't like to sit in my chair on the floor. I like to be on my feet all the time. This is where I work, and I work best when I'm standing up. But I'm not going to stand for any of that kind of nonsense. I will be sitting under the balcony. I'll also be taking roll to see how many people, who wanted to keep these preachers coming here, are here every time they come here. He gets his moments of fame by standing up there and being on television. He may or may not know that these proceedings are telecast to I don't know how far. So he gets up there; he knows the cameras are on and he's going to star.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Maybe now he can get a job with Pat Robertson, maybe Jerry Falwell, maybe some other nitwit called a preacher. If he hears what I'm saying, I want him to know what my reaction is. He was wrong, wrong, wrong. He's not an example to young people, up here preaching to people about this and that and asking God to forgive. Well, treaty breakers, treaty violators are not those that the God he claims to believe in approves of. He can read, and if he can't he should have asked somebody to read it for him. I have one more time to speak, and I'm going to do it.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Further discussion? Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, thank you. Mr. President and members, it is with some reluctance that I rise this morning, because I did not hear the prayer this morning. I was in my office. I did not have the television on yet and so I do not know exactly what did occur. But what I would like to put in the record is I believe there are many others in this Legislature and among the staff in this Legislature who did hear the remarks and who were also offended, and I just wanted to say that, Senator Chambers, because I don't believe that you are alone. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator
