FLOOR DEBATE

January 26, 2006 LB 366

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Three?

SENATOR STUHR: Three years.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That that money will...they will lose that money. You haven't changed that forfeiture, have you?

SENATOR STUHR: No. No.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: So actually, they...they're going to lose more money if they do not stay employed with the state or the county under this scenario, because that will be returned. They're not going to be vested.

SENATOR STUHR: Right. Yes, that's true.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Is that correct?

SENATOR STUHR: Yes, that is true. I think mainly we are trying to, I guess, cut down on the time of, you know, trying to pick up these people, since there are 14,000, over 14,000 state employees. Then sometimes if they missed that 12-month, you know, exactly, then they would have to take out double in their next paycheck, and it...we had no opposition, you know, to...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, I notice the counties didn't oppose this either,...

SENATOR STUHR: No, they did not.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...even though it's going to increase their payments.

SENATOR STUHR: That's right.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Now, will the next step be to reduce that vestiture time, you suppose?

SENATOR STUHR: I don't know, Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I mean I...
