FLOOR DEBATE

January 26, 2006 LB 366

SENATOR STUHR: We have not talked about it...about that.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, I wasn't aware that there was a longstanding effort to shorten the time period before...in other words, going immediately to withdrawal or becoming part of the retirement plan, so I wondered if that, the vestiture, may be next, because I assume that there's perception out there that some of these things are unfair. It's good...if you're going to stay with the state, the sooner you get involved with retirement the better. If you happen to be moving around, which several do, I'm aware of, especially in some departments, you're going to lose more because you will not have stayed the required three years. And I'm just trying to understand it.

SENATOR STUHR: Right. Right.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Is that accurate?

SENATOR STUHR: Yes, that's accurate.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you.

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Senator Stuthman.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Thank you, Lieutenant Governor and members of the body. I would like to engage in a little bit discussion with Senator Stuhr, if I may, please.

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Senator Stuhr.

SENATOR STUHR: Yes.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Senator Stuhr, in this amendment, it has that both counties and agencies are failing to properly enroll. Would you say which one of them would probably be the ones that are not getting it done? Is it the counties or is it the state agencies?

SENATOR STUHR: Well, we have a larger number of state employees, and so, of course, your percentage would certainly be
