FLOOR DEBATE

February 6, 2006 LB 778

bill is adopted, compared to prior...or, compared to the current status? Could you reemphasize that?

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: I sure can. For the certified general appraiser's license, you would...it would be required to have a bachelor's degree or 30 hours of classroom...not classroom, credit hours of higher education in a specific given course of study, which you'll find defined on your handout. And with the licenses that previously are below the certified general, would require an associate's degree, or 21 hours of college credit hours, would be in lieu of the degree.

SENATOR SMITH: Okay. In a specific degree, or just a degree?

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: A degree.

SENATOR SMITH: So it could be in psychology or appraisal or nursing?

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: Correct.

SENATOR SMITH: Okay. Thank you, Senator Langemeier. I'll anxiously await more information here. But I think this is probably a good bill, and the debate is necessary so we can work through all the details. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Smith. Further discussion? Senator Chambers, followed by Senator Beutler. Senator Chambers. Senator Chambers, did you wish to...Senator Chambers waives his opportunity. Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Cudaback, members of the Legislature, Chris, just a couple of questions, if I could, real quick.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Langemeier, would you yield?

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: Yes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator, throughout the bill, in several different places where there is a requirement to pass a closed-book examination that's administered by the board, there
