FLOOR DEBATE

February 6, 2006 LB 778

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: They...yes, they still have to.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: So this...it would be...

SENATOR BEUTLER: So...

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: ...an overkill if...

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...what additional...is this meant to be an additional requirement...

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: No.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...of some higher form of good reputation?

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: Not to my knowledge.

SENATOR BEUTLER: All right. Well, then maybe off the floor we can talk about whether that really integrates with 2227. And there's other language, by the way, in 2227,...

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: Correct.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...which I think you might look at, that appears to be duplicative, in any respect. Anyway, thank you for the time.

SENATOR LANGEMEIER: Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Further discussion on FA390, offered by Senator Chambers to LB 778? Senator Chambers, there are no lights on. I'll recognize you to close, if you care to.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President. members of the Legislature, I've already talked, in the past, of how galled I am when people such as Senator Bourne and the President of the United States mispronounce "nuclear" as though it was "nucular."
