FLOOR DEBATE

February 8, 2006 LB 875

the public welfare, the interests of our constituents. And our constituency is not just the people in our district, but all the people in this state. We can talk all we want to about how careful people perhaps should be in reading this and reading that. But you all don't even read your own bills carefully, so why are you going to put a higher standard on the public than you have...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...for yourself, when you're making the law? The courts say ignorance of the law is no excuse, but we ought to at least put into the law that type of information which will alert the public to what is being done to them. And when their money is taken, the law will not allow it to be taken under false pretenses. The law is going to say in this shaky area, you can get into it if you want to, because you're grown and you can spend your money as you please. You can throw it out in the street. But when it comes to this transaction, the people who are going to take your money in exchange for being able to do that, will have to print this disclaimer, this notification of risk, so that you go into it with your eyes open. And if you choose not to read the notification, that is on you. But the notification should be there. I support Senator Beutler's amendment; I support the bill. But if his amendment is rejected, I don't support the bill.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. (Visitors introduced.) On with discussion of the Beutler amendment. Senator Mines, followed by Senator Redfield.

SENATOR MINES: Thank you, Mr. President. I would yield my time to Senator Beutler.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Beutler, almost 5 minutes.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Cudaback, members of the Legislature,
