FLOOR DEBATE

February 23, 2006 LB 975

Catholic private school, Nebraska senators managed to get several millions of dollars to build a parking lot for Catholic Creighton, then they defeated an effort to get some money to build a parking lot for Joslyn. So it's hard for me to figure exactly what's going on...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...but I see them taking care of that part of the town. If I reach some kind of accord with you on this with reference to the cattle and the dairy cattle, will you and the rural senators help me defeat that bill that Omaha is bringing down here through Senator Landis, to give more state money to that convention project in Omaha, to help my constituents? Will you do that? If you make that pledge to me here, I will make a pledge to work with you on this as far as the cattle and the dairy cattle. Are you willing to do it? We don't have much time.

SENATOR SCHROCK: Senator Chambers, it's not on my radar screen so I'm not going to make that kind of commitment this morning. I'll listen to you and take it under consideration.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Atropos doesn't give much time.

SENATOR SCHROCK: I hear you. I hear you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR SCHROCK: But I can't do that...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I under...

SENATOR SCHROCK: ...without hearing a full discussion on the issue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: It's now your time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President. See, I make an
