Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

February 23, 2006 LB 975

Mr. President and members. I'd like to ask Senator Chambers a question or two, if I might.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Chambers, I did not vote on your last amendment that you had, or the amendment that we're reconsidering, because I wasn't sure about what it really was doing. And I'm still having problems, and I want to ask you what this amendment actually does.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. What it would do, Senator Schimek, is...and I'm going to put it in a nutshell. It would require, as the original bill did, the granting of the temporary use permit, however it's described, when a person has to come into compliance with the federal regulation. That remains,...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...untouched by mine.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mine deals with the automatic allowance, or requirement that there be an increase in all these critters. That's what my amendment would strike.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: So it takes out all the critters?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, that's what mine would do.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Doesn't do anything about the 10 percent?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That would be included...mine...the 10 percent falls within what I would be striking.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay. I'm going to come over off the mike,
