FLOOR DEBATE

February 23, 2006 LB 975

will be others that I don't particularly care about one way or the other, but they're going to have to be used by me to achieve a greater good for a greater number.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Schrock.

SENATOR SCHROCK: Senator Chambers, I think I've got 28 or 29 days left, I'm not sure which, and then I can go fishing. Thank you for the...for working with me. It's not everything I wanted; it's not everything you wanted. That's compromise. I tell people, if you want it your way, go to Burger King, don't come to the Legislature; it doesn't work. (Laugh) So I think the livestock industry will appreciate what we have done. My main concern, as you know, was not on the expansion, was the fact that I didn't want livestock producers to be put out of businesses because of political issues that go in counties. And I think the counties will thank us for taking this out of their hands. I think the body needs to understand, if it's major expansion, if it's a new facility, then the counties are going to have total control. I want to protect the existing operations. And that's what we have done, and we are going to allow some modest expansions for the smaller units, so that the money they spend can be spread out over more head. And so I think I feel good about this. Yes, I would have rather had more. Yes, you would have rather had more. But if you're going to get along in life, you've got to work with people and you've got to compromise. So I want to thank you for what we've done this morning, and gives us an opportunity to move forward, move forward on some bills you do like, some bills you don't like, some bills I don't like, some bills I do like. That's the nature of this business. This is my 14th year here. I've gotten a lot of advice from members who have been here longer. I've gotten a lot of advice from members who have been here shorter. But in the end, I've got to do what I think is right, and that's what you do. So I want you to know I appreciate what's happened this morning. And, Senator Chambers, would it
