forum they can use to try to collect debts.

SENATOR LOUDEN: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's why it's being raised, and Senator Cunningham did not want to acknowledge, when I asked him the question in the beginning, is this from the collection industry. He knew the nature of the question, so he simply said constituent. But that constituent is a businessperson trying to use the small claims court to collect debts.

SENATOR LOUDEN: Now are you against a...I call it a COLA part in there, that raising it every five years or something like that, or is that already in statute?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's already there.

SENATOR LOUDEN: Okay, so that part is something...it's just mostly the raising from the $2,700 to the $4,000 what you're against. Is that correct?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes. And also, I'm going to say again, if it goes on this bill of the Judiciary Committee, then that bill is in serious jeopardy, and it certainly won't move today.

SENATOR LOUDEN: Now did you...you're on Judiciary. Did you vote for or against this, or what was your position in the committee on this?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I've been against this bill every time it has shown its face in any way, shape, or form.

SENATOR LOUDEN: Okay, thank you, Senator. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Louden. Further discussion? Senator Cunningham.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Thank you, Senator Cudaback and members. Senator Chambers, if...I would just like to address one thing to you. First off, I didn't mean to mislead you when you asked me
