that the name of a street, a city, a county, a state, or a country?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen.

SENATOR JENSEN: That is Indiana, a state.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Where in Indiana, or was he just kind of born generally all over the state?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yeah, (laugh) he was all over the state. It doesn't mention the town that he was born in.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Ah, so who filled out his application? Did Senator Brown fill out his application?

SENATOR JENSEN: No, he filled it out himself.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What do you think he's trying to hide, Senator Jensen, by not leveling with us?

SENATOR JENSEN: I don't know.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It didn't occur to you to be concerned? What is he a doctor of, based on his allegation?

SENATOR JENSEN: He is a physician.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That means a medical doctor?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Where does he say he got his medical degree from?

SENATOR JENSEN: Creighton.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And he has been employed at Creighton for some time.
