FLOOR DEBATE

February 27, 2006

SENATOR JENSEN: I'm happy I'm here, yes, I am.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And doing what it is you're doing this morning.

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are you happy?

SENATOR JENSEN: I'm happy.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'm glad to hear that, because so am I. I'm enjoying this morning. We haven't had this much...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...conversation on the floor since we've been here, have we?

SENATOR JENSEN: No, I think this is a bonding time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And it is a good thing, don't you believe?

SENATOR JENSEN: It is okay. I'm okay with it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think that we're going to get through all of these appointees this morning?

SENATOR JENSEN: If we don't, we have tomorrow.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's not the question that I asked.

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, I think we will.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why do you think that?

SENATOR JENSEN: I just think that between you and I that we can work through this.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How many remain?
