SENATOR JENSEN: ...it could have been.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Could it have been signed by Jesse James?

SENATOR JENSEN: He's gone.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But could it have been...oh, so Jesse James that you know of is the only person with the name Jesse James. Is that what you're saying? I know some people named Jesse James.

SENATOR JENSEN: Do you? I don't think I do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Could Senator Combs have signed it, as far as what you actually know?

SENATOR JENSEN: For what I actually know, she could have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: She could have. I'd like to ask Senator Combs a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Combs, would you yield to a question from Senator Chambers?

SENATOR COMBS: I suppose.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Combs, it's good to have you back.

SENATOR COMBS: Thanks.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are you familiar with the individual we are discussing at this point?

SENATOR COMBS: No, I am not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you have any reason to believe that this person is not a person of integrity?
