FLOOR DEBATE

February 27, 2006

SENATOR COMBS: No, I don't.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you write a letter in behalf of this person?

SENATOR COMBS: Well, seeing as how I don't know him from a jar of Vicks, probably not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Could you have written a letter for this person, since you don't know who this person is? But before you answer that let me ask you, have you ever written a letter in behalf of somebody else who was trying to get a job or some kind of position?

SENATOR COMBS: Yes, I have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Could you have written a letter for this person?

SENATOR COMBS: If I knew them, I probably could; but since I don't, I would not try to.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I have a question, "ABC," which I must ask you. If you don't know who he is, how do you know who he's not?

SENATOR COMBS: That's a...that's a...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So could he be somebody that you know, as far as you know?

SENATOR COMBS: He could be an acquaintance, but he's certainly not a friend.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, how do you know that?

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR COMBS: I know who my friends are.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But if you don't know who this is, how do you
