Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

February 27, 2006

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How do you know that? Nobody has ever worked for you?

SENATOR COMBS: No one by that name.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What name?

SENATOR COMBS: "Hip" Hopp.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laugh) Who told you? You have help over there, don't you?

SENATOR COMBS: I've been listening.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Combs. Thank you. Senator Jensen, you're responsible for that, because you said Senator Combs could have signed this letter, so I just wanted to see if she really did. But now I want to get back to this gentleman. Since he is a medical doctor, which board does he serve on which may have sent him to the Board of Health as that board's representative?

SENATOR JENSEN: Ah, if I had my papers here in good order, I could tell you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's okay. We got time. Take your time. I'm generous with the Legislature's time.

SENATOR JENSEN: I will...I will say this. The letter is not signed at all.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Aha!

SENATOR JENSEN: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now we don't know who wrote that letter, do we?

SENATOR JENSEN: Well, it was an e-mail, and so there was no signature on it.
