FLOOR DEBATE

February 27, 2006

really exists, do we?

SENATOR JENSEN: Not certain.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Have people been fooled before by way of hoaxes or practical jokes?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, I would say not often in applications to gubernatorial appointments.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How do you know?

SENATOR JENSEN: Well, okay, there is...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR JENSEN: ...an assumption on my part. I'm assuming.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are you growing weary, Senator Jensen?

SENATOR JENSEN: No, I'm not growing weary.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is your happiness waning,...

SENATOR JENSEN: (Laugh)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...or is it growing by leaps and bounds?

SENATOR JENSEN: Hey, I'm a happy individual.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is this my third time on this one?

SENATOR CUDABACK: It is, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I have spoken three times already.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yes, confirmed.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: My, how time flies when you're dealing with "Hip" Hopp. Senator Jensen, ought I to vote for this alleged person whose existence we have no evidence of?
