experience working with her?

SENATOR BAKER: Well, I don't recall, Senator Chambers, I don't know.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you're making an assumption that he had worked with her?

SENATOR BAKER: Yes, I am. I don't...yes, I am.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Now, Senator Baker, do you ever go to the movie house, the show, the theater, the cinema...

SENATOR BAKER: Occasionally.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...or watch various productions?

SENATOR BAKER: Occasionally, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Did you ever see a movie called Children of the Corn?

SENATOR BAKER: No, I did not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It was...what do you think it would be about, Children of the Corn?

SENATOR BAKER: I don't...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What do you think it would be about?

SENATOR BAKER: I don't know. I really don't.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Could it be children who wore...who had parents who wore tight shoes, or could it be people who made a living growing corn? Is that possible?

SENATOR BAKER: I suppose it's possible, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you know that this movie was set in Hemingford, Nebraska?
