

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

March 8, 2006

clothes and some man and woman who, in my opinion, don't properly respect their daughter, having her sitting next to him with his old dried up self as his queen? No, more like consort. Why, if gender doesn't make a difference? Every time and for you all who don't believe it, I might just happen to have at home an old newspaper that shows the so-called king of Ak-Sar-Ben and the young woman who is the queen because that's acceptable. Old man, young woman. Some of them are so old they may not even remember what the difference is. You've seen all kinds of jokes, some that are not vicious and mean and others that are extremely cruel. Maybe if I didn't have my eyes open and my mind attuned I would not be as conscious as I am of the injustices visited upon women simply because they are women. Bills are brought through this Legislature that treat women entirely differently from the way men would be treated. There was a time when Viagra was covered by insurance, because the ones making the decisions were those who needed Viagra, but certain contraceptives and other things that pertain to a woman's...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...reproductive health or activities would not be covered. And I've been here when we argued some of those things. And gender doesn't make a difference? Why is it more necessary and essential that a man be able to engage in the sex act than that a woman be able to? Women have dysfunctions also. Why is it that when medical tests, medical experiments, medical studies are undertaken they usually involve white men and extrapolations are made from that that apply to black men, black women, and sometimes children? Now that people have begun to call attention to it, some of these studies will focus on things that pertain specifically to women and to people of a different ethnicity or so-called race. But the reason for that is because white men, when they're left in charge, are the ones who manufacture all kinds of divisions...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and injustices.