

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

March 9, 2006

LB 75

Civil War days. Well, there has to be a crisis created in the minds of the white politicians in Omaha who have given the back of the hand to the community I represent and live in.

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: They don't have that message. And I'm going to show them that in the same way that I could help get some money restored to them so they could use it any way they want to, that I can also oppose that. So now Senator Baker is going to be in a quandary. I see Senator Baker back there, and I'll have an opportunity to talk to him other than on the mike, because I see something differently from the way I saw it the other day. I got an agreement from Senator Baker on the floor to strike an amendment that Omaha wanted stricken, while we were debating another bill. That's how I get things done. But now I've changed my position, and he doesn't have to do that, as far as I'm concerned. And if he does it, his bill may be in trouble. Others are not...

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...going to fight his bill to the death.

PRESIDENT SHEEHY: Senator Chambers. And this is your third time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes. Thank you, Mr. President. This is going to be, for me, an interesting final 20 days. And I'll tell you all the only thing that I really am interested in seeing done, and that's to handle the matter of impeaching Dave Hergert. That, I am interested in seeing done. And if the Legislature decides that they're not going to vote impeachment, that is on the Legislature. But that is one issue which I definitely intend to bring before the Legislature by way of presenting a resolution of impeachment. Naturally, before I do that, I will discuss it with the Speaker, so that matters of scheduling can be taken into consideration. But in too many instances in this Legislature, there are people who want to see things done, but they don't know how to get it done. They do the best they can, but their best is not good enough. And when
